RAFFLES DESIGNERS AND MARKETERS REFLECT AS THEY GRADUATE DIGITALLY

1 JULY 2020, SINGAPORE – At Raffles College of Higher Education, although we are disappointed that we cannot hold the graduation event as in past years, we are delighted to organise an award ceremony, in conjunction with the launch of the virtual showcase of this year's graduates' works, ideated and completed during Singapore's Circuit Breaker.

Despite the constraints, 46% of the graduating Raffles-Coventry University's Bachelor (Hons) in Design and International Fashion Business programmes attained First-Class Honours, with 50% in Second-Class Honours and 4% in Third-Class Honours. List of First-Class Honours recipients is attached in ANNEX A.

The graduating cohort has worked hard and their perseverance and resourcefulness in completing their final year projects under such challenging circumstances is admirable. Besides preparing themselves with the necessary skills to navigate the new industry landscape, these Raffles Designers and Marketers have also attained great success before they graduate today. List of achievements is attached in ANNEX B.

Their journeys of growth REFLECT their readiness for the future.
Their passions for innovation REFLECT the signature of their creativity.

“This is a time when you need to stop and reflect on the past, the present, as well as where you are going in the future. You as a student are at a turning point and you need to contemplate what is next in response to a world that is still off-balance and permanently changed by the events that took place this year. This is a time when you need to react and reflect on what has happened and to re-imagine and re-design the new adventure that you will embark on, the future is yours to make,” Giuseppe (Joe) SPINELLI, Principal, Raffles College of Higher Education said.
